Not one grain too much!

(Henry Ward Beecher)

“If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?” Hebrews 12:7

Affliction comes to us all:

not to make us sad—but sober;
not to make us sorry—but to make us wise;
not to impoverish us—but to enrich us!

We are always in the furnace—or on the anvil.
By trials, God is shaping us for nobler things.

Troubles are often the tools by which God fashions us for better things!

No physician ever weighed out medicine to his patients with half so much care and exactness, as God weighs out every trial to His children. Not one grain too much, does He ever permit to be put in the scale!

The troubles and worries of life may be as stumbling blocks in our way—or we may make them stepping-stones to a nobler character and to Heaven.
