Memory Verse for January:

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass.

Psalm 37:5

Kindly see that your cell phones are on "quiet mode" during all services. Thank You!

The one indispensable book!

(Daniel March, 1870)

Psalm 119:7, O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day.

The Bible is the oldest--and the newest of books.

The Bible surveys the whole field of time--and it looks farthest into the infinite depths of eternity.

The Bible lends the most vivid and absorbing interest to the scenes and events of the past--and it keeps us in the most active sympathy with the time in which we live.

The Bible gives us the most reliable record of what has been--and it affords us our only means of knowing what is yet to be.

The Bible is holy enough to denounce the very shadow and semblance of sin--and it is merciful enough to save the chief of sinners.

The Bible is full of God--and must therefore be read with a pure heart, or its true glory will not be seen.

The Bible is full of man--and must therefore always be interesting and instructive to all who would know themselves.

The Bible is the plainest of books--and yet it has depths of wisdom which no created mind can fathom.

The Bible is set up as a beacon to show all wanderers the safe way--and yet its light shines forth from thick clouds of mystery, and from abysses of infinite darkness.

The Bible describes all conditions of life--and it gives utterance to all desires and emotions of the soul.

The Bible has a song of triumph for the overcomer--and a wail of defeat for the overcome.
