All-sufficient grace

(John MacDuff)

"And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:" 2 Corinthians 9:8

All-sufficiency in all things! Believer! Surely you are "thoroughly equipped for every good work!"

Grace is no scanty thing, doled out in pittances.

It is a glorious treasury, which the key of prayer can always unlock—but can never empty!

It is a fountain—full, flowing, ever flowing, over flowing!

Mark these three ALL'S in this precious promise. It is a three-fold link in a golden chain, let down from the throne of grace, by the God of grace. "All grace!" "all-sufficiency!" in "all things!" and these to "abound." Oh! precious thought! My need cannot impoverish that inexhaustible treasury of grace! Myriads are hourly hanging on it, drawing from it—and yet there is no diminution. Out of that fullness we, too, may all receive, "grace upon grace!" My soul, do you not love to dwell on that all-abounding grace! Your own insufficiency in everything, met with a divine "all-sufficiency in all things!"

Grace in all circumstances and situations.

Grace in all vicissitudes and changes.

Grace in all the varied phases of the Christian's being.

Grace in sunshine—and in storm.

Grace in health—and in sickness.

Grace in life—and in death.

Grace for the old believer—and the young believer.

Grace for the tried believer, and the weak believer, and the tempted believer.

Grace for duty—and grace in duty.

Grace to carry the joyous cup with a steady hand—and grace to drink the bitter cup with an uncomplaining spirit!

Grace to have prosperity sanctified—and grace to say through tears, "May Your will be done!"
