Let your light shine!
(John MacDuff)

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." Matthew 5:16

There are many things connected with the Christian's pathway which worldlings cannot comprehend. What is said of the workings of the divine life in the soul, is regarded by them as foolishness and fanaticism.

Its internal principles,
its constraining motives and impulses,
its heavenly aspirations,
its rapturous bliss, and its agonizing struggles—are things which these strangers cannot comprehend!

But still, there is much which they are able to understand, such as . . .
whatever is consistent in character, whatever is honest and straightforward between men,
whatever is kind and compassionate in behavior, whatever is forbearing and forgiving under insults and injuries.

Such features, when unostentatiously exhibited—excite their attention, and, generally, call forth their praise. The manner in which the ordinary duties of life are discharged, is something so tangible—that it lies within the province of their own observation. These things they can understand; and it is of the highest importance that all who profess to be Christians, should be distinguished by an exhibition of these practical fruits of righteousness.
